Board Reports

- Supervisor Phillips – Road commission fees have gone up this year. Commission complimented the township for a job well done for keeping grass cut on roadways – used township as an example of a job well done to other townships. For 2019 fiscal year, Sciota township will spray roadside grass instead of cutting.
- Clerk Parker-Wing - W -2's due by month end.
- Treasurer Doyle – Property tax collection is going better than last year
- Trustee Reed - No comment

County Officials

- Cindy Garber, District 6 Commissioner. Plans to attend board meetings every month. Serves on Shiawassee County committees of Health and human services and finance committee. Spoke of qualifying credentials she had for the position. Contact her with questions and concerns.
- Brian Begole, Sherriff of Shiawassee County. RE: suspected, possible crimes in Sciota township
 - Constituents need to call 911 for any suspicious activity.

Old Business

- Marijuana ordinance_– tabled, will revisit in one year. All approved
- Lot line split (adjustment) - Planning commission approved lot split. The owners have county signatures in favor to proceed. Matthews made motion to accept lot like split as approved by planning commission findings, second by Doyle. All approved – motion passed.

New Business

- Board of Review Nominee, Diane Baclawski nominated to board of review by Matthews, second by. Reed. Approved by all - Motion passed.
- MTA Training. Board of review members; White, Cassler, Baclawski, Dilday and Matthews will attend Board of Review Training at the MTA on February 20. Reed moved to approve, Parker-Wing second. - Motion passed.
- Putnam Road Cemetery_– Forum: suspicious or possible criminal activity at/near Putnam Road cemetery next to home owners. Sherriff Begole instructed all constituents to call 911 for any suspicious activities or unauthorized vehicles parked in violation of township posted laws.
- Dowler submitted and requested township policy resolutions for acceptance of federal poverty guideline exceptions. Motion to approve resolution by Matthews, second by Parker-Wing (formal resolution acceptance will appear on February 2019 meeting agenda).
